SYSTEM NAME	LEGAL & OTHER REQUIREMENTS PROCEDURE
SYSTEM NUMBER	RNSWP002
PURPOSE & SCOPE	The purpose of this procedure is to document the process of identifying and acquiring access to environmental, quality, health and safety related legal (legislative and regulatory) and other requirements applicable to the site's activities, products and services.
CONNECTING DOCUMENTS	RNSWF003 legal & Other Requirements Register

TERM	DEFINITION
Applicable Legislation	All legislation and requirements applicable to the risks, aspects and impacts related to company activities and context.

TASK	STEPS	FREQUENCY	POSITION
Identifying Legislation & Other Requirements	A review of all Legal & Other requirements is completed to establish all the applicable requirements. Legal Requirements • Legislation, including statutes and regulations. • Decrees and directives. • Permits, licenses or other forms of authorisation. • Orders issued by regulatory agencies. • Judgements of courts or administrative tribunals. • Customary or indigenous law. • Treaties, conventions, and protocols. Other Requirements • Agreement with public authorities. • Agreement with customers. • Non-regulatory guidelines. • Voluntary principles or codes of practice. • Voluntary environmental labelling or product stewardship commitments. • Requirements of trade associations, and corporate / company requirements. • Pollution control Act, Rules, and notifications. • Environment Protection Act. • Environment, Hazard, and Safety Publications on legislation for Industry and Business. • Environment / Safety Legislation Update Newsletter. • Any Other communication from regulatory body especially relevant acts and rules, as applicable and listed.	Annually	HSEQ Team
Legal & Other Requirements Register	Legal & Other requirements register on Smartsheet is to be maintained to register all of the legal & Other requirements.	As Required	HSEQ Team

Updating the Legal & Other Requirements Register	Each update received is reviewed for relevance to the company and a record of the review is retained. The RNSWF003 Legal and Other Requirements Register will be amended, where necessary, within one calendar month.	As Required	HSEQ Team
Assessing Changes in Legislation	The introduction of new legislation, changes to existing legislation, or new government agendas, charters or policies considered by HSEQ Team, to be of relevance and importance to the company is then cascaded to relevant employees as quickly as practicable.	As Required	HSEQ Team
Communicating Changes in Legislation	Communication may be in the form of an email, link or article provided on Worx, dissemination through working groups, or articles in the company newsletter or other internal publications. Global Compliance Group communicate legal requirement updates/changes to the company using previous mentioned methods to responsible. Awareness of and compliance with legislation and other requirements is evaluated by one or more of the following: • Audits • Document and/or records review • Facility inspections/tours • Management Review The change in the regulatory requirements shall be identified through: 1. Notices received from the regulatory bodies 2. Announcement in newspapers / Magazine 3. Communication with regulatory bodies factory Inspectorate and others. 4. Communication to concerned departments about the changes / amendments to be carried out / implemented. 5. Safety and WHS newsletter New legislation / amendments come to the notice, the relevant document shall be identified, and action would be initiated through internal communication records to all concerned. In case any changes to be incorporated at Organisation level or changes due to changes in legal and other requirements with regard to the existing work practice the same shall be decided and communicated to the interested party within one month.	As Required	HSEQ Team
Evaluation of compliance with legal & Other requirements	A review of all legal & Other requirements is completed to ensure that all the company is complying. Refer to the Schedule Requirements Register for next review.	Annually	HSEQ Team

	Any non-compliance issues are raised as a non-conformance and processed through the Nonconformity Procedure.		